

Available courses

Sciences Po Bordeaux international students have a large choice of courses in political science, international relations, economy, European studies, law and social sciences. The classes are given either in French or in English.

Download the list of courses

Download the calendar