

International Political Economy and Global Governance:
China, Europe and the World
Professor Lin REN
Chinese Academy of Social Sciences

Class 1:

How to write research proposal?
Preparation for writing your final thesis

Class 2:

What does International Political Economy Study?
Cooperation and conflict
Power and dependency;
Globalization and Anti – globalization?
Growth and development;
Domestic Politics and International Politics

Class 3:

Introduction into typical IPE theories
Reading: Robert Gilpin, The Political Economy of International Relations, Princeton, N.J.: Princeton University Press, 1987 Chapter 2, pp. 25-64..

Class 4:

Global Governance: A Theoretical Approach
Reading: ZHANG Yuyan, Understanding Global Governance, Horizons, Issue No.7, 2016.

Class 5:

Literature review on Global Governance (Chinese Researchers)
P.S.: please take good notes during class, if you will choose task 1 as your final examination.

Class 6:

China Participates in Global Governance
G20, BRICS, AIIB……

Class 7:

Brexit effects Global Governance and International Political Economy
Reading: Ren Lin, Brexit effects Global Governance and International Political Economy, International Economic Review, issue 6, 2016.

Class 8:

Belt & Road and the EU-Chinese relations

Final Task:

1. How do the European scholar see global governance? Identify the similarity and difference between the views between the Chinese and European scholars. Please also refer to the IPE theory to understand global governance.

2. How do you see the European integration after Brexit and its influence on Sino-Europe relations?