

LVB – Arabic

Presentation

The Arabic method conferences are intended for FIFMA fifth-year students, with an intermediate to advance level in Arabic, i.e. between B1 and B2. The topics covered range from political, economic, social and cultural current affairs and are related to the students' Master's specialization. The purpose of the class is to provide the students with opportunities to discover or better understand contemporary Arab societies and to acquire the language skills necessary to understand the upheavals that have shaken Arab countries in recent years.

The themes are also presented in various forms: texts, press articles, debates, cartoons or any type of audio/audio-visual documents. Various types of exercises will be performed to develop students' oral comprehension skills.
