

Hospital law

Presentation

The purpose of this class is to: prepare students for competitive entrance examinations, ensure that students have a good understanding of hospital law and are up-to-date with current figures and issues, and prepare students for presenting their knowledge.

Recommended Prerequisite(s)

Students are required to choose one hospital law textbook and to read, prior to each session, the chapters relating to the themes to be studied.

In brief

Number of hours : 18.0

Teaching term : Six-monthly

Teaching activity : Seminar

Year : Fifth year

Validation : Continuous assessment

Contacts

Responsible(s)

Soubie Christian
christian.soubie@scpobx.fr

Formule pédagogique

During each session: feedback on the various questions asked by students, current events, oral presentation (prepared in advance by a student —10 minutes), review and submission of technical sheets (2 pages maximum) prepared by students designated in advance.