

History of international politics

Descriptif

The course proposes an analysis of the origin and evolution of the modern world order from its early beginnings to the contemporary post-Cold War world. Its purpose is to go back over the major stages of this evolution with the view of enabling students to have an in-depth knowledge of long-term trends and processes at the roots of current world affairs. The course notably studies the material dimension of the international order in the 1st part dedicated to the Evolution of the International System, and its normative elements in the 2nd part focusing on the Development of an International Society (part II).

Pré-requis souhaités

Students taking this lecture should know the major dates and events of world history since the end of the Middle Ages.

En bref

Crédits ECTS : 2.0

Nombre d'heures : 18.0

Temporalité : Semestriel

Type d'enseignement : Cours magistral

Année : 4 | Quatrième année

Mode de validation : Examen terminal écrit

Contacts

Responsable(s)

Battistella Dario

d.battistella@sciencespobordeaux.fr

Examens

Le nombre de crédits ECTS et les modalités d'évaluation sont susceptibles d'être différents pour les étudiants en programmes d'échange à crédits.

Bibliographie indicative

- * Bull H., The Anarchical Society : A Study of Order in World Politics, 1977, Basingstoke : Palgrave MacMillan, 3rd edition, 2002.
- * Carr E., The Twenty Years' Crisis 1919-1939 : An Introduction to the Study of International Relations, 1945, 2nd edition, Basingstoke : Palgrave MacMillan, 2001.
- * Gilpin R., War and Change in World Politics, Princeton : Princeton UP, 1981.
- * Said E., Orientalism, 1978, London : Penguin, 2003.
- * Schmitt C., Der Nomos der Erde im Völkerrecht des Jus Publicum Europaeum, 1950, Berlin : Duncker & Humblot, 1997.

Formule pédagogique

The course consists in a series of lectures.

