

Cultural patronage

Presentation

This class focuses on patronage-related issues, more specifically in the cultural sector, using a global approach - both theoretical and practical. It covers the following topics: patronage from its origins to the present day; the role of private funding in culture; the legal and fiscal framework; patronage at the local level: structures and networks; the main trends: overview and current situation; and finally, patronage as a strategic development tool, for cultural structures as well as for companies. The class is based on practical cases and situations, which helps students to familiarize themselves with the subject in a practical manner.
