

Fifth year Europe-Russia: global issues and strategies

Presentation

Year of study in Moscow

The fifth year (second year of the Europe-Russia: global issues and strategies masters program - [M2]) consists of a year of study at the Peoples' Friendship University in Moscow. It completes the training received on the Russian political and economic system. It also involves the completion of a research dissertation and an internship of several months to be carried out in a Russian company or organization.
